DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Quinlan.

Quinlan discloses a rotary cutting comprising all the elements and method steps as claimed including, inter alia, a plurality of modular die components (46, 46'). See whole patent.

Regarding the claims directed to the cut/scored product, due to the fact that Quinlan's die components are adjustable in a multitude of ways and that the dies are available in a myriad of different sizes, even if Quinlan may not explicitly set forth what part of the die determines specified lengths or line, Quinlan's device and method inherently includes that capability.
